

Final Specification:

1. The team leader will break down the project into tasks and assign each task to team members.
2. Visualizing each team member's contribution through their project-related activities.
3. The teacher will set deadlines for the project.
4. Students can upload various documents related to the project.
5. The teacher has the capability to modify project deadlines.
6. A personal chatbox will be available for communication between teachers and students.
7. A reminder system will alert students about upcoming deadlines.
8. A documentation section will facilitate the sharing of project-related information among team members.
9. Students will have individual profiles detailing their knowledge across different platforms.
10. The teacher can evaluate student performance and provide feedback.